"Warsaw Convention" and "Montreal Convention" mean the Convention for the unification of certain rules relating to international carriage by air signed, the first at Warsaw, 12th October 1929, or that Convention as amended at The Hague, 28th September 1955, and the second at Montreal, 28th May 1999, whichever may be applicable.

2. Carriage hereunder is subject to the rules and limitations relating to liability established by the Warsaw Convention or by the Montreal Convention unless such carriage is not "international carriage" as defined by that Convention.

3. To the extent not in conflict with the foregoing carriage and other services performed by each carrier are subject to: (i) provisions contained in the ticket, (ii) applicable tariffs, (iii) carrier's conditions of carriage and related regulations which are made part hereof (and are available on application at the offices of carrier), except in transportation between a place in the United States or Canada and any place outside thereof to which tariffs in force in those countries apply.

4. Carrier's name may be abbreviated in the ticket, the full name and its abbreviation being set forth in carrier's tariffs, conditions of carriage, regulations or timetables; carrier's address shall be the airport of departure shown opposite the first abbreviation of carrier's name in the ticket; the agreed stopping places are those places set forth in this ticket or as shown in carrier's timetables as scheduled stopping places on the passenger's route; carriage to be performed hereunder by several successive carriers is regarded as a single operation.

5. An air carrier issuing a ticket for carriage of baggage shall be deemed to act as its Agent.

6. Any exclusion or limitation of liability of carrier, its agents, servants and representatives of carrier and its agents, servants and representatives shall be subject to the carrier's contracts of carriage.

7. Checked baggage will be delivered to the passenger at the destination. Baggage moving in international transportation shall be delivered forthwith after discovery of damage and, at the latest, within 7 days from the date the baggage was delivered. See tariffs or conditions of carriage regarding noninternational transportation.

8. This ticket is good for carriage for one year from date of issue, except as otherwise provided in this ticket, in carrier's tariffs, conditions of carriage, or related regulations. The fare for carriage hereunder is subject to change prior to commencement of carriage. Carrier may refuse transportation if the applicable fare has not been paid.

9. Carrier undertakes to use its best efforts to carry the passenger and baggage with reasonable dispatch. Times shown in timetables or elsewhere are not guaranteed and form no part of this contract. Carrier assumes no responsibility for making connections.

10. Passenger shall comply with Government travel requirements, present all exit, entry and other required documents and arrive at the airport by the time fixed by the carrier or, if no time is fixed, early enough to complete departure procedures.

11. No agent, servant or representative of carrier has authority to alter, modify or waive any provision of this contract.
